

FUNDRAISING IDEAS

BLUE AND GREEN ON MAY 17

Dress in blue and green, dye your hair, paint your nails or pop on some blue & green make up or face paint, encourage your colleagues or school to participate on May 17 for a donation. You might even have prizes for the 'the best coloured' participant.

HOST A MORNING TEA OR CAKE STALL

Organise a special blue & green morning tea. Ask people to bring food or event ask local businesses to contribute towards the morning tea or you could have The Great Bake Off and cake stall.

TEAM CHALLENGE

Set your team a challenge - dance, sing, rock climb or learn a new skill as a team and ask friends and family to sponsor you. It's always more fun in a team.

BLUE AND GREEN FUN RUN/WALK

Organise a community run or walk where participants wear blue and green attire or accessories. Participants can register for the event and contribute a registration fee as well as ask for sponsorships from family and friends.

COMMUNITY PICNIC

Host a blue and green themed picnic in a local park or outdoor space. Charge an admission fee for attendees, and offer activities like games, live music, or face painting to make it a fun-filled event for the whole family.

ONLINE FUNDRAISING CAMPAIGN

Create an online fundraising page on the CTF website where supporters can make donations directly to the Children's Tumour Foundation. Use social media and email signature to spread the word about your campaign and encourage people to contribute.

RAFFLE IT OFF

Collect donation of gifts from local businesses to create a hamper that you could use as a raffle prize. You could even try and keep the hamper blue & green themed.
