

PHOTO RELEASE POLICY

I, the above named / parent or guardian of the above named child, give permission for the rights, image, likeness and sound of my/my child's voice for all photographs and videos given, taken or recorded by or for the Children's Tumour Foundation (CTF) to be:

Copied, edited, exhibited, published, distributed or otherwise used by the CTF in any or all advertising, promotional and marketing material both physical and electronic in nature

I am aware that if I am of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent that my image will be in use over a number of years and understand that while the CTF will take reasonable steps to ensure the image does not appear in material published after my death they may still appear in published materials.

Please note, should you wish to withdraw your permission to use these images, scans or videos, I must inform the CTF in writing at which point the CTF will cease any future publication or use of the image(s).

If the image is on our website, the CTF will remove within 20 working days. Images that were used in brochures or other printed materials will be replaced as part of the next required print run. Images in our Year in Review cannot be removed once published.

By ticking this box, I understand that images or videos may for several years appear in printed and electronic material which has been produced and disseminated prior to my withdrawal, but will not be provided to any third party without the written permission of the individual or parent/guardian.
